

China Telecom
Data Center Service

Your Secured Business Hub and Data Repository to South East Asian Countries

Our Singapore data center is a truly carrier neutral center, which can access to all subsea cable systems landing in Singapore. Customers can flexibly design their network infrastructure and open up their business to any of the South East Asian Countries.

Up-to 30% Off for 3KVA Space Leasing Further Discount for Global Routes Internet Access Bundle *2-year Contract Term

China Telecom Data Center Service Overview

China Telecom has an extensive IDC network with more than 300 IDCs located in prime areas in Mainland China and key overseas countries. Our network includes around 20 Tier-IV and more than 60 Tier-III IDCs connected to reliable and wide range of global private and public data circuits. With comprehensive security measures and one-stop professional service provided, we will give you safe, convenient and reliable solutions to meet your specific and ever-growing needs.

Scalability:

Customized configurations to meet your unique business needs, from 1/2 rack up to 50 racks.

Security:

Secured datacenter space with China Telecom's global disaster recovery solutions.

Performance:

Up to 10Gbps high speed internet access and low latency private line service available.

Service:

One-stop-solution and services, with world class quality of service delivery and customer support.

Reliability:

Honored with ISO Certification for facility management and 7x24 remote hand services.

